

Al Baqarah - Test Ayah 86-90

True or False:

1. People go rebellious against the Prophets as the Prophets say things which are against their culture.
2. It is foolish to follow inherited beliefs and convictions when their falseness is established by overwhelmingly strong arguments.
3. One should always try to follow inherited beliefs no matter how many strong arguments he hears.
4. People who give preference to this life over the life of the hereafter will be given a light punishment
5. People who give preference to this life over the life of the hereafter shall face a hard torment.
6. Allah swt sent Musa alaih salam first and then He swt sent Nuh alaih salam and then Isa' alaih salam
7. Allah swt sent Nuh alaih salam first and then He swt sent Musa alaih salam and then Adam alaih salam
8. Isa' alaih salam was supported by Jibril alaih salam
9. Jibril alaih salam is the holy spirit
10. Isa' alaih salam is the holy sprit
11. People go rebellious against the Prophets as the Prophet say things which go against what people desire.
12. People who give preference to this life over the life of the hereafter shall not be given any help from Allah swt.
13. Read the following story and mark the given statements true or false

The people of the book recognized Prophet Muhammad sallallahu alaih wassalam. The most authentic evidence in this connection is that of Safiyah, a wife of the Prophet, who was herself the daughter of one learned Jewish scholar (Huyayy b. Akhtab) and the niece of another (Abu Yasir). She says that when the Prophet migrated to Madina both her father and uncle went to meet him and conversed with him for quite a while. When they returned home, she heard the following conversation:

Uncle: Is he really the same Prophet whose advent has been prophesied in our Scriptures?

Father: By God, he is.

Uncle: Do you believe that?

Father: Yes..

Uncle. Then what do you intend to do?

بِسْمِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

Father: 1 will continue to oppose him and will not let his claim prevail as long as I live.

True or False:

1. Jews and Hindus are called the People of the Book.
 2. The Jews recognized that Prophet Muhammad sallal lahu alaih wassallam was the last Prophet.
 3. Safiyah was the wife of the Prophet sallal lahu alaih wassallam
 4. Safiyah was the daughter of a Jewish scholar.
 5. Safiyah was the niece of Abu Sufyan.
 6. Safiyah's father said he will never oppose the Prophet sallal lahu alaih wassallam.
 7. The arrival of the last messenger is clearly mentioned in old scriptures.
14. "To sell yourself to someone other than Allah swt" means to get money from someone for doing a job.
 15. "To sell yourself to someone other than Allah swt" means to do something to gain worldly benefit.
 16. "To sell yourself to someone other than Allah swt" means to do something to gain benefit in the hereafter.
 17. The Jews expected that the Prophet mentioned in their Scriptures will be from Bani Israel.
 18. Prophet Muhammad sallal lahu alaih wassallam was from the Children of Prophet Ismail.
 19. The Jews rejected Prophet Muhammad sallal lahu alaih wassallam as he was from the Children of Prophet Ismail.
 20. The Jews rejected Prophet Muhammad sallal lahu alaih wassallam as he was poor.

ANSWERS

1. People go rebellious against the Prophets as the Prophets say things which are against their culture.
2. It is foolish to follow inherited beliefs and convictions when their falseness is established by overwhelmingly strong arguments.
3. One should always try to follow inherited beliefs no matter how many strong arguments he hears.
4. People who give preference to this life over the life of the hereafter will be given a light punishment
5. People who give preference to this life over the life of the hereafter shall face a hard torment.
6. Allah swt sent Musa alaih salam first and then He swt sent Nuh alaih salam and then Isa' alaih salam
7. Allah swt sent Nuh alaih salam first and then He swt sent Musa alaih salam and then Adam alaih salam
8. Isa' alaih salam was supported by Jibril alaih salam
9. Jibril alaih salam is the holy spirit
10. Isa' alaih salam is the holy spirit
11. People go rebellious against the Prophets as the Prophet say things which go against what people desire.
12. People who give preference to this life over the life of the hereafter shall not be given any help from Allah swt.
13. Read the following story and mark the given statements true or false

The people of the book recognized Prophet Muhammad sallallahu alaih wassalam. The most authentic evidence in this connection is that of Safiyah, a wife of the Prophet, who was herself the daughter of one learned Jewish scholar (Huyayy b. Akhtab) and the niece of another (Abu Yasir). She says that when the Prophet migrated to Madina both her father and uncle went to meet him and conversed with him for quite a while. When they returned home, she heard the following conversation:

Uncle: Is he really the same Prophet whose advent has been prophesied in our Scriptures?

Father: By God, he is.

Uncle: Do you believe that?

Father: Yes..

Uncle: Then what do you intend to do?

Father: I will continue to oppose him and will not let his claim prevail as long as I live.

True or False:

بِسْمِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

- ❖ Jews and Hindus are called the People of the Book.
 - ❖ The Jews recognized that Prophet Muhammad sallal lahu alaih wassallam was the last Prophet.
 - ❖ Safiyah was the wife of the Prophet sallal lahu alaih wassallam
 - ❖ Safiyah was the daughter of a Jewish scholar.
 - ❖ Safiyah was the niece of Abu Sufyan.
 - ❖ Safiyah's father said he will never oppose the Prophet sallal lahu alaih wassallam.
 - ❖ The arrival of the last messenger is clearly mentioned in old scriptures.
14. "To sell yourself to someone other than Allah swt" means to get money from someone for doing a job.
 15. "To sell yourself to someone other than Allah swt" means to do something to gain worldly benefit.
 16. "To sell yourself to someone other than Allah swt" means to do something to gain benefit in the hereafter.
 17. The Jews expected that the Prophet mentioned in their Scriptures will be from Bani Israel.
 18. Prophet Muhammad sallal lahu alaih wassallam was from the Children of Prophet Ismail aliah salam.
 19. The Jews rejected Prophet Muhammad sallal lahu alaih wassallam as he was from the Children of Prophet Ismail aliah salam
 20. The Jews rejected Prophet Muhammad sallal lahu alaih wassallam because he was poor.